- APT, UAC and TOT courses from other than CRPF Institution i.e. BSF, ITBP, CISF, etc. may be allowed. Grading of BPT and APT courses with "A" and "B" grade may be treated as "AX" and "BX" accordingly. If a candidate has undergone two or more courses and obtained good grading, only one course i.e. the course in which the candidate had obtained highest grading (best grading) will be taken into account for awarding weightage of marks for Good grading. Marks will not be awarded for the remaining courses. ToT course of minimum 5 weeks duration only be considered.
3. Notification of examination may be announced in marker / Roll Call / meetings / Sainik Sammelan etc and all the aspirants of above examination be made aware/reiterated about the schedule and eligibility requirement which they have to fulfill for appearing in examination.
 4. If a candidate does not meet physical standard, he/she may be rejected at initial stage of scrutiny by unit or concerned centre.
 5. No candidate who availed condonation in physical standard during his/her appointment in lower rank earlier and on the date of submitting application for LDCE is not meeting required standard, his application is liable to be rejected at initial stage/unit level and he will not be eligible to appear in the examination.
 6. In case, candidate availed condonation in physical standard at the time of recruitment in lower rank and later on gained the required physical standard during the period of time due to growth, his/her eligibility may be checked from AME report, which is the authentic document to confirm their correct physical standard (height/chest & weight etc.) / eligibility conditions in support of their claim.
 7. Details of candidates applying for the post of HC/GD through LDCE-2019 should be ascertained by Unit/Offices immediately on issue of notification and following course of action taken by Units/offices issuing NOC :-
 - i) Since Service records of personnel posted in Units are held with Group Centres, a suitable representative (Ministerial staff) should be detailed to proceed to Group Centre alongwith list of candidates of the Unit applied/appearing for HC/GD LDCE-2019 and check the entire details in the Service record properly to ascertain the eligibility criteria for issue of NOC.
 - ii) H.O.O issuing NOC will take immediate action for updating ACR file in respect of aspiring/applying candidates by quickest means.
 - iii) AME is valid for one year period. It must be ensured that the candidate is in SHAPE-I category at the time he/she applies for LDCE. However all such candidates, where their period of AME validity expires within the opening and closing date of applications, they may be advised in their own interests to get their fresh AME conducted immediately, irrespective of validity of date and then apply for the post.
 8. The Service Book and ACR with all other connected documents of the eligible candidates will be provided by the HOO to their respective Zones well in advance without fail. Units will take special efforts and use of all communication measures and ensure that Service record, ACR and related documents reaches their respective Zone well in advance.
 9. All documents related to requisite educational qualification required for appearing in the selection should be available in the Service Book of the personnel.
 10. The scrutiny board will ensure that the candidates meet all eligibility parameters. The Board will be responsible to ensure that the candidate is eligible as per NOC provided

- by Head of Office and further from Service Records/ACR etc and rule out any possibility on eligibility which might have been overlooked by H.O.O./Commandant.
11. There will be no provisional acceptance of application in this examination. Responsibility of non acceptance of application due to non completion of any Adm requirement will lie on H.O.O. Individual is also responsible for completion of his AME/records etc. for submitting his application duly completed in all respect in time.
 12. The candidates not fulfilling the eligibility conditions on the date of application will not be eligible for applying for LDCE.
